MEMORANDUM FOR: The Director
The Deputy Director

STAT FROM: [redacted]
Acting Director of Congressional Affairs

SUBJECT: Weekly Report

FY89 Intelligence Authorization Bill. On 5 August the full Senate considered the FY89 Intelligence Authorization bill. The only floor amendment offered was that providing for death gratuity benefits for families of defense attaches (added in the wake of William Nordeen's death); it was agreed to. The provision concerning certain reports of Inspector General activities was included in the bill. There was no floor fight on the IG or GAO audit.

South Africa Sanctions Bill. On 11 August the full House considered the South Africa sanctions bill (H.R. 1580). There were fiery speeches during debate both for and against its passage.

STAT [redacted]

Mr. Broomfield then moved to recommit the bill to committee to report it back with an amendment that the law would not go into effect until the President certifies that it would not undermine peace negotiations under way in southern Africa. This motion was defeated. The final vote on the bill, which was passed, was 244 to 132.

Executive Appearances and Invitations

The DCI spoke to an audience of approximately 600 attorneys and guests at the ABA meeting in . According to the Chairman of the ABA Committee on 25X1
Law and National Security, Richard Friedman, the DCI's remarks were well received. Comments from the attendees centered the enormous national security problems facing U.S., Canada, and the Western democracies. The audience agreed with the DCI concerning the need for the U.S. to defend its national security and to do it within the rule of the law. The lawyers also agreed that the U.S. Government is sensitive to adhering to the rule of law and balancing conflicting interests.
